

CITY OF JOHNSTOWN
ADVISORY BOARD/COMMISSION APPLICATION FORM

Under the Council-Manager form of government, boards and commissions play an important role in assisting the City Council in governing the City. In order to serve on a board or commission, applicant must be a full-time resident and qualified elector of the City. A member of the Johnstown Redevelopment Authority does not have to be a resident, but must own and operate a business in the City.

Applications for boards and commissions can be picked up in the City Manager's office, Room 102 in City Hall. The City Council will review applications for board and commission vacancies and applicants will be notified of the Council's action.
