Nays: None (0).

PROCLAMATIONS, AWARDS, HONORS, RESOLUTIONS OF RECOGNITION

None.

PUBLIC COMMENT - AGENDA ITEMS ONLY

John DeBartola, 1197 Bedford Street, Johnstown, addressed Council with regard to Bill No. 2, which an ordinance is providing for the sale of real property not needed for public use by the City of Johnstown. He requested further information regarding the disposal of property, as well as information regarding Bill No. 6 relating to the drug forfeiture of the narcotics investigation.

Mr. DeBartola expressed his concerns regarding Resolution 11, which refers to the advertisement of the City Manager position, and Ordinance 4, which he noted as vaguely explained. He questioned whether the public comment being limited to five minutes total for elected officials, clubs, civic groups and businesses on city-related matters only was in violation of the Sunshine Act and requested clarification.

Mr. Davis suggested Mr. DeBartola "go back and do his homework", that as one of the last City managers there was a budget surplus, and that was before there was a 10-mill increase.

Mrs. Stanton commented that she and Mr. Williams had wanted city manager interviews last year and that currently there was no permanent city manager. There was further discussion regarding Ordinance No. 4.

Mr. DeBartola commented that he would be taking legal action if the ordinance were passed, that he "will not tolerate the Sunshine Act or his right to criticize government to be challenged in any way, shape or form." He requested that the City Solicitor provide clarification.

Mr. Williams commented, "Council will not be amending Ordinance 5210, but is amending the old Administrative Code."

Mr. Britt inquired of Mr. DeBartola as to a fair time allotment for public comment. Mr. DeBartola stated that as long as people are allowed to speak for an established timeframe. He was also concerned about the two-speaker requirement.

Mrs. Mock will provide clarification "the proper way," meaning when the ordinance is read.

Mr. Williams noted that 1,915 people voted in favor of and 400 voted against the 5-minute and 10-minute time limits, and that Council could not change that for a two-year period.

Mrs. Stanton made a motion to amend the agenda to include her Council Update submissions as sent to the City Clerk's Office, including letters regarding the Cambria County Redevelopment Authority and Cheney Run, 40 Code complaints, and proper Administrative Code protocol. The motion was seconded by Mr. Williams and passed by the following vote:

Yeas: Reverend King, Mrs. Stanton, Mr. Williams, Mr. Britt (4).

Nays: Mrs. Mock, Mr. Vitovich, Mayor Janakovic (3).

Interim City Manager Curt Davis stated City equipment could be used to take care of the matter at Cheney Run. Mrs. Stanton offered further explanation of the letter sent to the Cambria County Redevelopment Authority.

COURTESY OF THE FLOOR

Dennis Knipple, 216 Main Street, addressed Council regarding the use of audio countdown at crosswalk signals for the benefit of blind pedestrians.

Mrs. Stanton commented that Mr. Knipple was not addressing an agenda item, but that if an exception was made, it will need to carry over to all other residents.

Mrs. Mock made a motion to allow Mr. Knipple to speak. The motion was seconded by Mr. Britt and passed by the following vote:

Yeas: Mrs. Mock, Mr. Vitovich, Mr. Britt, Mayor Janakovic, Reverend King (5).

Nays: Mrs. Stanton, Mr. Williams (2).

Mayor Janakovic stated PennDOT was contacted regarding the matter.

Mrs. Stanton made a motion requesting that the Interim City Manager locate funding for the audio crosswalk signal. Mr. Britt seconded the motion. Hearing no further comment on the new item, the motion passed by the following vote:

Yeas: Mrs. Stanton, Mr. Vitovich, Mr. Williams, Mr. Britt, Mayor Janakovic, Reverend King, Mrs. Mock (7).

Nays: None (0).

REPORT BY THE INTERIM CITY MANAGER

Curt Davis, Interim City Manager, reported the FOP and AFSCME agreements were completed. Some language will need to be settled in connection with the firefighter's agreement.

Mr. Davis noted that Council needed to appoint a liaison to the Johnstown Redevelopment Authority.

Mr. Williams commented that there is "nothing in the statute that a liaison is necessary."

Mrs. Mock made a motion to serve as liaison to the JRA. Mayor Janakovic seconded the motion.

Reverend King, Mr. Britt, Mayor Janakovic and Mr. Vitovich declined a recommendation by Mr. Williams.

Mayor Janakovic nominated Mr. Williams. Mr. Vitovich seconded the motion. Mr. Williams declined the nomination.

The motion to approve Mrs. Mock was passed by the following vote:

Yeas: Mr. Vitovich, Mr. Britt, Mayor Janakovic, Reverend King,
Mrs. Mock, Mrs. Stanton (6).
Nays: Mr. Williams (1).

Mr. Davis stated Council needed two appointments to the Planning Commission. Both Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Vizza applied for the appointments.

Mrs. Stanton made a motion that nominations be made at this point in the meeting. Reverend King seconded the motion. Ms. Benjamin noted that no motion is necessary.

Mrs. Stanton nominated Lindy Yutzy and Homer Mattis. Mr. Vitovich nominated Pete Vizza.

Mr. Britt made a motion to table the matter pending further review. The motion was seconded by Reverend King and passed by the following vote:

Yeas: Mr. Williams, Mr. Britt, Mayor Janakovic, Reverend King,
Mrs. Mock, Mrs. Stanton, Mr. Vitovich (7).
Nays: None (0).

Mayor Janakovic made a motion to advertise the appointments. There was no second to the motion.

There was further discussion whether to change the advertisement for appointments to every six months as opposed to the current resolution, which requires quarterly advertisement, with the addition of appropriate language in the advertisement that applicants can apply at any time throughout the year. There was further discussion regarding the matter.

Mrs. Stanton made a motion to advertise yearly for the board and commission appointments. There was no second to the motion.

Interim City Manager Davis reported a meeting was held with the County and City Planning Commissions, Vision 2025 Recovery Team, Mr. Foreman and a DCED rep to discuss updating its comprehensive plan, by doing so could result in economic funding. The group will soon meet again. Mr. Davis requested the attendance of two Council representatives. Reverend King and Mrs. Mock volunteered to attend the meeting.

Mr. Williams referred to a motion passed by the Planning Commission with regard to the use of a parking lot near Bishop McCort for further discussion. Ms. Benjamin will follow up on the matter.

Mr. Davis informed Council that a company called Citrona, LLC, has been buying up properties in the area, which can be purchased with Bitcoin and flipped into Section Eight housing. He stated the City, County and GJWA would monitor the properties "to see that they are not being flipped in a judicial sale or sheriff's sale when there are major code complaints or back taxes." Mr. Davis commented that Citrona, LLC, could also be found under eight different names. It was noted the person in charge of Citrona was the same person who stripped the church on Vine Street.

The Interim Manager will meet with Mr. Arcurio and the AAABA staff to discuss increasing the number of teams in the league.

REPORT BY THE MAYOR

Frank Janakovic, Mayor, noted the receipt of $83,000 to do a monetization study of the City's assets, including the municipal golf course, the Point Stadium, inner-city sewage lines, Conference Center, garages and other assets. He stated monies obtained from the sales would be concentrated on the reduction of the pension fund, liabilities and City debt loans.

Mayor Janakovic reported that JARI had recently announced a 200-hour welding program at no cost to residents of Cambria City, Coopersdale, Morrellville, and Oakhurst.

Deputy Secretary of Community Affairs, Rick Vilello, and Mayor Janakovic discussed the possibility of legislature to reduce contributions as much as 75 percent in relation to the pension funds. Mr. Janakovic stated that would mean 3.2 down to 1.6 for Johnstown, which would assist with the fiscal problems the City faces yearly.

Mayor Janakovic commended Reverend King and Mrs. Mock on organizing the recent Peace Walk.

He noted his continued attendance at the Discover Downtown partnership meetings on behalf of the City.

Mr. Janakovic congratulated Amy Bradley on recently being named President of the Chamber of Commerce.

Council was invited to Penn Highlands on Thursday, February 15, 2018, to speak on City, resident and neighborhood needs.

Mayor Janakovic noted the receipt of a $15,000 grant by the Johnstown Fire Department.

He noted his attendance at a recent Lift Johnstown celebration at Aces.

Bill Flanagan, Allegheny County Chief Corporate Relations Office, recently provided a presentation on the history of Allegheny County and commented on the availability of jobs in that area.

REPORT BY THE CITY SOLICITOR

Elizabeth Benjamin, Esquire, City Solicitor, reported that the training with members of the Ethics Commission would be held on February 15, 2018, at 4:30 p.m. in Council Chambers. A printout of a PowerPoint presentation will be available to Council members.

Mayor Janakovic made a motion to authorize the Solicitor to represent all named Respondents in the action filed at Williams and Stanton v. Frank J. Janakovic, Mayor; Marie Mock, Councilwoman; David Vitovich, Councilman; Curtis Davis, Interim City Manager; Victoria McKay, Interim Director of Finance; and City of Johnstown at Civil Action No. 2018-129, Cambria County Court of Common Pleas effective retroactively to January 12, 2018. The motion was seconded by Mr. Britt and passed by the following vote:

Yeas: Mr. Britt, Mayor Janakovic, Reverend King, Mrs. Mock,
Mr. Vitovich (5).

Nays: None (0).

Mrs. Stanton and Mr. Williams abstained from voting on the motion.

Mr. Davis questioned being named in the lawsuit, as he was not the Interim City Manager at that time. Mr. Williams noted there would be further discussion regarding the matter during litigation.

REPORT BY THE CITY ENGINEER

Council members agreed to waive the Engineer's Report. Mrs. Stanton requested that the font on sewage complaints be enlarged for better viewing. She stated a resident's complaint regarding sewage backups should be followed up in a timely manner.

Mr. Vitovich inquired as to start of the sewage project in Kernville so residents could contact plumbers. Mr. Sewalk noted that section of town was awaiting authorization to bid. Mr. Davis offered additional information regarding the matter.

COUNCIL UPDATES:

1. Planning Commission Minutes of January 3, 2018.
2. February 6, 2018 letter from George Hayfield.
3. February 5, 2018 letter from Jack Williams re: Unbalanced 2018 City Operating Budget, Ordinance 5245 (December 13, 2017).

Mrs. Stanton inquired as to the reason that only 23 out of the 40 code complaints were addressed. There was further discussion regarding a timely response to these complaints. Mrs. Stanton requested the Johnstown Area Heritage Association, as well as a vacant property on Main Street own the "boarding up" of a vacant property on Napoleon Street and securing the Clara Barton House.

Mr. Williams exited the meeting at 7:27 p.m.

NEIGHBORHOOD LIAISON REPORTS

Mrs. Mock reported on her work with Reverend King with regard to reviving many of the recreation items. She will update Council members later.

She noted the United Neighborhood Group would hold a meeting on Thursday, February 15, 2018, at 5:00 p.m.

Reverend King noted the United Neighborhood Group consists of residents of various neighborhoods throughout Greater Johnstown. She discussed the various activities of the group.

Mr. Britt discussed a neighborhood meeting that was recently held at the Johnstown Middle School.

Mayor Janakovic discussed the possibility of a soccer clinic to be held in March with participants from UPJ.

The group further discussed ways to encourage younger individuals to become more involved in moving the City forward.

Mr. Vitovich commented the City's equipment was sound and the stockpile was good. He noted Public Works employees are taking advantage of the warm weather and are out everyday patching potholes.

Mrs. Stanton thanked the St. Vincent DePaul Family Kitchen for its service provided to the community. She stated the kitchen has a wish list of items, which includes bleach, dish soap, and paper towels. Mrs. Stanton still participates in the Saturday morning community walks. She noted her attendance at a recent Moxham Crime Watch Meeting.

Mrs. Stanton attended a recent poverty-eliminating workshop at the Grove Avenue United Methodist Church. She toured the Good Will facility on Central Avenue and discussed a few of the programs offered by Good Will as well as United Methodist Human Services.

Mrs. Stanton noted a free community movie event recently held at Roxbury St. Paul's United Methodist Church.

She inquired as to patching the potholes on Osborne Street. Mr. Davis commented the crews would soon commence patching potholes.

Wednesday, February 14, 2018 9 of 28
Stated Meeting, continued

Mayor Janakovic will provide additional information to Council with regard to Project Hope, an organization that supplies health assistance to children and their families.

Mrs. Stanton made a motion to recess for ten minutes. There was no second to the motion.
