SECTION 2. Longevity payments are authorized for those employees covered by collective bargaining agreements and current non-bargaining employees. Employees hired after January 1, 2010, and not covered by collective bargaining agreements shall not be entitled to longevity payments.

SECTION 3. Pursuant to the City of Johnstown's Fourth Amended Recovery Plan, and not deleted with the adoption of the 6th Amended Recovery Plan Ordinance No.5137, passed finally, October 28, 2013, and under provisions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Municipalities' Financial Recovery (Act #47), which states:

a. Establishment of an employee contribution toward the most affordable coverage option available to the employee at 15 percent of cost, with employees further paying the full incremental cost of any more expensive options. Alternative contribution structures (e.g., based on a percentage of salary rather than benefit cost) be ay substituted with the approval of the Coordinator, so long as equivalent savings are achieved).

b. Increased office visit and prescription drug copayments, coinsurance, and other cost sharing mechanisms with periodic upward adjustments for inflation and/or changing market conditions. Provisions of subsections (a); (b) shall become effective January 1, 2010.

1. Contributions will be paid thru bi-weekly payroll deductions from gross payroll amounts prior to calculating required Federal, State and Local withholding taxes.

2. All new hires' are provided health care coverage and shall contribute (15%) to the total monthly premium.

SECTION 4. Compliance provisions with this and any other City of Johnstown Codified Ordinance are subject to the terms set forth in Chapter 202.09 VIOLATION, REGULATIONS AND ORDERS.

Except as otherwise provided in these Codified Ordinances, no person shall violate any rule, regulation or order promulgated by any officer or agency of the City under authority vested in him, her or it by law or ordinance, or under authority of these Codified Ordinances.
