

Johnstown Sewer Sale -- Questions? We have answers.

The City of Johnstown and the Greater Johnstown Water Authority (GJWA) are working towards a potential sale of the City's sewer collection system.

Johnstown has created a webpage on its website where you can find resources about the sewer sale including:

- A brief overview that explains why the city is considering selling to GJWA, the history of the work that has gone into the sale and more
- Meet the experts – bios of the professionals helping with the sewer sale
- A summary of the asset purchase agreement
- And more.

Additionally, we want to hear from you.

If you have questions about the sewer sale, please send an email to ProposedSewerSale@gmail.com. We will review and post answers approximately weekly.

Please note, due to volume of questions, we may not be able to answer every question.

Thank you.
